

You Are My Solace Lord

Here I sit in the night in the presence of you Lord.

Quiet, Calm, Peaceful.

The day has gone. The night has come. I cherish this time with you Lord.

Your warmth, your love, your care and your comfort is all so very real.

I know of your presence each morning when I arise.

You walk with me through the day.

But the moment I most cherish with you is when I am alone meditating in prayer.

You are my solace Lord.

I talk with you. You speak to me all throughout my day.

But I hear you speak much louder when I take time out to pray.

There is a calm that comes over me and it gets stronger every day.

I am not hurried or worried.

I am at peace.

And it is only because of you Lord that I feel so confident in every kind of way.

Thank you for your presence Lord continue to walk with me day, by day, by day.

If I seem to get busy with daily life and tasks,

Lord I ask that you stop me to seek your lovely face.

For Prayer time is a cherished time and I need your strength always.
